SPECIAL RULES

Air Observation Post - p.98

Air Observation Posts follow the rules for Air Observation Posts found on page 139 of the rulebook.

During your Starting Step, after rolling for Air Support, you may elect to either use your Auster AOP as normal (using the Air Observation Post rules on page 139 of the rulebook) or use it to coordinate Dixie Air Support (if you have taken that upgrade option). The Auster AOP cannot do both in the same turn.

If you choose to use the AOP to coordinate Dixie Air Support, all air attacks against targets within Line of sight and 16"/40cm of the Auster AOP are under its control.

Aircraft under the control of an Auster AOP may re-roll a failed attempt to Range In.

Unlike normal air attacks that cannot be within 16"/40cm of any friendly teams (see Safety Distance rule on page 184 of the rulebook), aircraft under the control of an Auster AOP will only abort if friendly teams are within 12"/30cm of the Aircraft model.

The Dixie Air Support special rule can be found on page 23.

Armoured Squadron HQ (1C) - p.77

As an exception to the Allied Platoons rule on page 70 of the rulebook, US, French, Polish and British (including all Commonwealth nations) Observer teams can Spot for each other's Artillery Bombardments.

Commonwealth Rifle Platoon (1C) - p.47

When making a Night Attack, Rifle Platoons with a Armoured Personnel Carrier Section may still make a Spearhead move, even though the platoon is not entirely made up of Infantry Teams.

Field Battery, Royal Artillery (1C) - p.94

Although a Field Battery, Royal Artillery is a single Support choice, each Gun Troop operates as a separate platoon with its own Command team. The Command team and Staff team of the HQ Troop must be attached to a Gun Troop from its battery at the start of the game before deployment, see the British Artillery special rules on page 248 of the rulebook.

Motor Carrier Platoon (1C) - p.85

Scout Patrols are Reconnaissance Platoons.

Scout Patrols operate as separate platoons, each with their own command team.
