SPECIAL RULES

Rifle Company HQ (2nd I.D.) - p.49

All American platoons from a company with the Why We Fight special rule use the British Bulldog rule (see page 246 of the rulebook in Assaults involving any SS platoon).

Platoons from the 2nd Infantry Division do not use the Truscott Trot special rule. Instead, Infantry and Man-packed Gun teams from the 2nd Infantry Division may move At the Double through Slow Going, (but not through Obstacle fortifications).

Roadblock Strongpoint - p.61

A Roadblock Strongpoint is a Fortified Platoon (see page 262 of the rulebook).

A company that includes a Roadblock Strongpoint is a Fortified Company (see page 257 and 262 of the rulebook).

Booby Traps are Area Defences and are therefore deployed using the Placing Booby Traps rules (see page 230 of the rulebook) and do not have to deploy with the rest of the Fortified Platoon.

Tank Platoon (Veteran) - p.68

You can upgrade your M4 or M4A1 Sherman tanks from your Tank Platoons to newer models. For each tank you wish to upgrade, simply add the points that match the skill rating of the Tank Platoon you have chosen to the cost of the platoon. For example, in one of your full-strength Veteran Tank Platoon (415 points), you would like to upgrade one tank to an M4A3E2 Jumbo, two tanks to M4A3 (76mm), and leave the rest as normal. This adds +60 points for the Jumbo upgrade and +55 for each of the 76mm upgrades, for a total cost of 585 points for the platoon.
